AgriFlow

In Burkina Faso, some regions produce too much while others face shortages, causing losses for farmers and high prices for consumers. Agriflow connects farmers, retailers, and consumers, helping farmers sell more and people access fresh, affordable local products.

Duelio

I noticed that several quizz app are from US, UE knowledge. My solution is to build a quizz app just for African culture, history knowledge.

Online Sales Manager

The problem is that people have been scammed on social networks through online sales and I propose the creation of an online sales manager to avoid scams.

Panamé

Often, we want to style our hair, but we don't know which style to choose.

That's where Panmé comes in. It's a solution that allows you to try out different hairstyles using your photo and see which hair salons can create the style you're looking for.

Tailor

The application allows tailors to take a photo of someone and obtain that person's measurements, and also allows either the person or the tailor to view models suitable for the person.
